

Ice queen in training,
so proud of you,
Lauren!
Love,
Grandma Carmen & Grandpa Brent

We were all a fair bit younger when she first laced up her skates
As she followed older sisters through those chilly ice rink gates.
But eagerness and aptitude
so quickly compensated,
for parental cautions offered
were so greatly over-rated!
And off she glides in sweeping arcs
soon doing leaps and spins.
Evoking cheers from many fans
who are proudly wearing grins.
Instructions plus encouragement,
rehearsal hours on end,
make Siri's grace seem easy.
So now it's time to send her off to greater challenges,
this senior skate behind her.
Seize the day, be on your way
this lovingly reminder!
We've made some miles,
you've caused some smiles!
Loving you all the way!
From Grandpa & Grandma Sheldon
